

PRESS RELEASE

December 15, 2008

Reed Performs Well At First Elite Canada

Regina's Danielle Reed competed to 16th place All Around in Women's Senior competition at Women's Elite Canada, and tied for 8th on Floor Exercise. The competition in Gatineau Quebec began with All Around Friday evening (all 4 apparatus), followed by Event Finals on Sunday.

Reed, a 16 year old from O'Neill high school, attended her first Elite Canada competition and in the Senior category. She trains at the Queen City Kinsmen Gymnastics Club.

All Around gold went to Brittany Rogers of Omega Gymnastics in Coquitlam BC, silver to Calgary's Sydney Sawa and bronze to Charlotte Mackie, also of Omega.

Elite Canada is an annual competition to rank the top Canadian athletes for national teams. Full results are available online: http://www.gym-score-depot.ca/elite_canada_2008_wag/

Saskatchewan Results:

Women's National Senior

Danielle Reed (QCK Gymnastics)

All Around – 16th

Bars – 8th (tie)

Vault – 15th

Bars – 18th

Floor – 20th

For more information, please contact:

Alynn Brischuk
Technical Director
Gymnastics Saskatchewan
abrischuk@gymsask.com
306.780.9229 (b)

*Danielle Reed, QCK Gymnastics
Performing at Elite Canada 2008*